EDU 284 - Field Experience Practicum: A (30 hours)

Teacher Education candidates are required to complete 200 classroom-based field hours prior to graduation. In this course candidates will complete thirty of the classroom-based field hours. Through field placements, teacher candidates have opportunities to collaborate with external partners to enhance their knowledge, skills, and dispositions through observation and application in a K-12 classroom. In EDU 284, students will focus on lesson planning and teach a minimum of two small-group lessons, receiving feedback from their cooperating teacher and assigned clinical supervisor. Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education.

Upon completion, students will be able to:

- practice instructional skills and apply feedback for improving their teaching performance.
- plan effective lessons aligned with Kentucky Academic Standards and students' needs.
- implement classroom management skills effective for maintaining a positive and engaging learning environment.
- reflect on their teaching performance and set goals for improvement.
