Course

EDU 285 - Field Experience Practicum: B (30 hours)

Teacher Education candidates are required to complete 200 classroom-based field hours prior to graduation. In this course candidates will complete thirty of the classroom-based field hours. Through field placements, teacher candidates have opportunities to collaborate with external partners to enhance their knowledge, skills, and dispositions through observation and application in a K-12 classroom. In EDU 285, students will focus on engagement and teach a minimum of two lessons (at least one whole class), receiving feedback from their cooperating teacher and assigned clinical supervisor. Prerequisite or corequisite of EDU 284.

Upon completion, students will be able to:

- practice instructional skills and apply feedback for improving their teaching performance.
- plan effective lessons aligned with Kentucky Academic Standards and students' needs.
- implement classroom management skills effective for maintaining a positive and engaging learning environment.
- reflect on their teaching performance and set goals for improvement.
